

Day on All Saints

“All You Holy Men & Women, Pray for Us”

October 31, 2010

Christians have professed their belief in “the communion of saints” ever since the formulation of the Nicene Creed in 325 A.D. Even though they are dead, the saints are still part of our community of the living. They are our companions in prayer and example of holiness.

On this day we will explore:

- ✧ Who are the saints and how do they inspire us to accept the reality of God’s love with all its consequences?
- ✧ Is sainthood reserved for only a few or can we all aspire to sainthood because it is a goal within our capacity aided by grace?

Join us on this day before the Feast of All Saints when the Church prays to be filled with the Spirit that blessed their lives.

Presented by Fr. Dan Crosby and Sue Soriano.

Begins 10:00 a.m. and concludes at 3:30 p.m.

Noon meal and Sunday Eucharist are included.

Offering: $40.00.
