The rediscovery of Celtic Christianity has been a delight for many followers of Christ in recent years. The Celts are often described as “God intoxicated” people who lived with an intense sense of the presence of God throughout their life’s journey. Discover new ways to connect your walk with Christ to your everyday life as you explore the many examples of prayer, art, literature and music from the Celtic tradition. This retreat will be an interesting, challenging and at times humorous look at life through the eyes of the Celts, presented by Julianne Donlon. She was born and educated in Ireland, is an international inspirational speaker currently working for the Diocese of Green Bay as Director of Adult Faith Formation. Profoundly influenced by her life in Ireland and her interest in Celtic Spirituality she infuses her talks, seminars and retreats with passion and a fresh perspective. Dynamic, energetic and engaging Julianne’s unique message has touched countless lives.
