

New Year's Eve Retreat 2010

WHICH FACE WILL I TAKE INTO THE NEW YEAR?

Do you remember the Roman god Janus (for whom January is named)?

He has two faces: one looks forward, the other backward.

That's two ways of ending a year and beginning another.

Which is the face I will choose as I go each day into the New Year?

Will it be the face of gratitude, knowing I'll have enough --

Or the face of apprehension; fearful I won't have what I need?

Come to this special retreat and strengthen your choice:

It will help make a NEW Year!

Given by Fr. Dan Crosby and Jan Beringer

Begins December 31st with 7:00 p.m. evening meal and concludes by 2:00 p.m. on New Year's Day.
