

Celebrating Transitus and offering a reflection day about St. Francis of Assisi

October 3-4, 2010

Throughout the world on the evening of October 3rd, Franciscans gather to remember the "Transitus," the death of St. Francis.

Come and share a simple supper, followed by the Transitus service.

For those who wish to learn more about St. Francis, we invite you to stay overnight. On Monday we'll celebrate his feast day Mass and offer some introductory sessions on St. Francis' life and spirituality.

Presented by Fr. Dan Crosby

October 3rd begins at 6:00 p.m. supper (free will offering)

To stay overnight and attend the Day of Reflection which starts with 9:30 a.m. Mass and concludes by 4:00 p.m. Offering: $65.00
