PRAYING WITHOUT WORDS: Giving Voice to That Within

October 29-31, 2010

Prayer takes form in many ways—words, movements of the heart, song, body prayer, poetry, and art. Explore a way of praying when words are simply not enough. Throughout time the human heart has sought ways to give expression to its desire for God. Music has been one of the most frequently used methods of prayer. David used the harp to dance before the Lord. Great musicians have composed movements that expressed what they were experiencing when words could not.

Drum maker Wayne Manthey will lead participants in the art of making a 13 or 16 inch deerskin drum. The very steps involved in crafting the drum create a natural rhythm for reflection and reverence. Tammy Barthels will weave prayer and deep listening into this process of giving voice to those expressions that are beyond words. Join us for a weekend of praying without words.

Begins at 7:00 Friday evening (Note: Evening Meal NOT served on Friday Evening) and concludes Sunday with the noon meal. Offering includes meals, lodging, and all drum making materials. Attendance is limited to 15 participants.
